MONDAY, APRIL 11
Undergraduate and Graduate Student Poster Presentations
11:30 am – 12:50 pm

TUESDAY, APRIL 12
Newark Public Schools at RU-N
Ninth grade students from the Barringer High School STEAM Academy in Newark come to learn more about careers in STEM

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 13
Celebrating over 30 years of the Minority Biomedical Research Support Program

Research Symposium Presentations by MBRS Students and Alumni
10:00 am – Noon
Moderated by Dr. Alex Rodriguez, Assistant Professor, FAS-N Department of Biological Sciences

Lunch – Noon
Featured Speaker – Dr. Clifton A. Poodry, Howard Hughes Medical Institute, former Director, Minority Opportunity in Research Division, National Institute of General Medical Sciences - National Institutes of Health

Career Trajectory Panel Discussion
2:00 – 5:00 pm
Moderated by Dr. Barry R. Komisaruk, MBRS Program Director and Distinguished Professor, FAS-N Department of Psychology

THURSDAY, APRIL 14
Gender Diversity in Research

Gender Mainstreaming in STEM
9:30 - 10:30 am
Featured Speaker - Dr. Simone Buitendijk, Vice-Rector of the Universiteit Leiden and Chair of the League of European Research Universities Gender Equality Group

Faculty & Alumni Panel Discussion
10:45 am - 12:30 pm
Moderated by Simone Martin, MPA, MA-IR, Doctoral Candidate, Rutgers University Newark Division of Global Affairs

Lunch Presentation * - Carla Emanuele, New York Academy of Sciences
12:45 - 1:45 pm
* RSVP requested by April 7th to gsnsch26@newark.rutgers.edu

All events will be held at the Paul Robeson Campus Center
350 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard, Newark, NJ

For more info, please visit gsn.newark.rutgers.edu/ResearchWeek